Arcane Background (Sorcerer)

Arcane Background (Sorcerer): Sorcerers use Spellcasting as their arcane skill, but it is linked to Spirit instead of Smarts (if multiclassing as a Smarts-based spellcaster, use the better of the two Attributes). On taking this Edge, the hero gains 15 Power Points and two starting powers from the list below. Available Powers: Arcane protection, baleful polymorph, banish, barrier, beast friend, blast, blind, bolt, boost/lower trait, burrow, burst, confusion, conjure item, curse, darkness, deflection, detect/conceal arcana, disguise, dispel, divination, drain power points, elemental manipulation, empathy, entangle

Arcane Background (Wizard)

Arcane Background (Wizard): Wizards use Spellcasting as their arcane skill. A hero who takes this Edge gains 10 Power Points and three powers from the list below.Available Powers: Arcane protection, baleful polymorph,banish, barrier, beast friend, blast, blind, bolt, boost/lower trait, burrow, burst, confusion, conjure item, curse, darkness, deflection, detect/conceal arcana, disguise, dispel, divination, drain power points, elemental manipulation, empathy, entangle

Arcane Mastery

Arcane Mastery Requirements: Heroic, Witch Through her dark patron, the witch unlocks the mysteries of her mystical powers. This gives her access to all her powers' Epic Power Modifiers.

Bane

Bane Requirements: Seasoned, Inquisitor Once per encounter, as a limited free action, an inquisitor may imbue her weapon with righteous judgment. As long as it remains in her hands, it has the bane enchantment for five rounds (+2 AP, increases damage die one type; see Magic Items in Pathfinder for Savage Worlds).

Cleric

In faith and the miracles of the divine, many find a greater purpose. Called to serve powers beyond most mortal understanding, all priests provide for the spiritual needs of their people. More than mere preachers, clerics serve as emissaries of their gods. While clerics of different faiths share similar abilities, they are as different from one another as the divinities they serve. Some of the healing and benevolent, others jealous and vengeful, and still others cause conflict and corruption. Arcane Background (

Mystic Theurge

Mystic theurges place no boundaries on their magical abilities, whether they stem from the arcane or divine. Combined Spells: A theurge can cast two spells as a limited action. The theurge must use two different arcane skills, declare her spells and all Power Modifiers as usual, then roll a die for each (the Wild Die can replace either). If the arcane skills have the same die type, use different colored dice or, now know which is which. The cost of both spells must be paid separately, and effects from Critical Failure

Mystic Theurge II

Spell Synergy: When the theurge uses her Combined Spells ability she reduces the cost of each spell by one Power Point (to a minimum of 1).

New Powers

An arcane character may learn two new powers by choosing this Edge (which may be taken multiple times). He may choose from any powers of his Rank or lower normally available to his particular Arcane Background (see differences in Edges). A character can add a new Trapping on a power she already has instead of gaining a new one. She might add an ice Trapping to her existing fire bolt for example, so she could switch between ice and fire Trappings freely. If a wizard takes this Edge, he may

Bag of Holding, Major	1	0	10000	BAG OF HOLDING This common-looking cloth sack is about 2' by 4' in size, but inside it opens into a vast nondimensional space. Whatever is put into the bag, it weighs a fixed amount. This weight, and the limits in weight and volume of the bag's contents, depend on the bag's type, as shown on the table below. If overloaded, the bag of holding and all of its contents are destroyed and lost, forever. Likewise, if the bag is ruptured, it and all its contents are destroyed. The bag's owner can sense the volume used, making it possible to manage the space without accidentally destroying it or its contents. Storing or retrieving an item from the bag requires an action. 				Peacock Spirit. The quill is fashioned from a peacock's tail feather. Its nib is made of bone, and when held, the quill seems strangely heavy. If placed in an empty vial or other glass container of similar size and left there for an hour, a revelation quill fills that container with ink. The ink created is of a random color 50% of the time, otherwise the ink is black. While a revelation quill can function as a standard writing implement, its true strength lies in its ability to answer questions. Once per day, if the user concentrates on a specific future goal, event, or activity occurring within the coming week, the revelation quill takes over and writes out a short response, often in the form of a cryptic rhyme or omen. Once per week, the user may use the quill in the same way to contact another plane instead, asking up to 10 yes or no questions of the mysterious intellect that guides the revelation quill.

Scroll of Fly	1	0.1	900	See power: Fly Scrolls contain magical words, runes, and glyphs a user can activate by reading them aloud. Each scroll has one power inscribed onto it, including possible Power Modifiers if listed in its description. A character must have the scroll in hand and may not read more than one scroll per turn. Reading a scroll is an action and requires a Smarts roll or arcane skill roll (caster's choice). If the roll is successful, the power activates and the scroll fades. A reader may try again if the rolls fails, but a Critical Failure means the scroll crumbles to dust without activating the power. Craft: The cost of a scroll is equal to its power's Rank × the number of Power PointsPower Points} it uses; then multiply that total by 50 gp. Alcance: Sm Duración: 5 Rango: Novice

Smite See power here. Rank: Novice Power Points: 2 Range: Smarts Duration: 5 School: Transmutation Trappings: A colored glow, runes, sigils, crackling energy, barbs grow from the blade. This power is cast on a weapon of some sort. If it's a ranged weapon, it affects one entire magazine, 20 bolts, shells, or arrows, or one full "load" of ammunition (the GM determines the exact quantity for unusual weapons). While the power is in effect, the weapon's damage is increased by +2, or +4 with a raise. Limitations: In the case of smite with a Personal Limitation, "Self" refers to the specific weapon instead. ModifiersSee generic modifiers here Additional Recipients (+1): The power may affect more than one target for 1 additional Power Point each. GREATER SMITE (+2): The weapon's damage is increased by +4, or +6 damage with a raise and is considered a Heavy Weapon.

Baleful Polymorph (Magic)

PP: 3

Alcance: Sm Duración: 5 Rango: Veteran

Baleful Polymorph See power here. Rank: Veteran Power Points: 3+2 per point of size change Range: Smarts Duration: 5 School: Transmutation Trappings: Cursed artifact, a bolt of energy. Choose a creature with the Animal type, from Size –2 to Size 3. Baleful Polymorph is an opposed roll of the character's arcane skill versus the target's Spirit. With a success, the victim changes into a relatively harmless creature. They gain the Agility, Strength, Vigor, and innate abilities of the animal, but retain their own Smarts and Spirit. The target must be able to survive in its current environment while in its new form (you cannot turn someone into a fish while on dry land). If the victim critically fails the Spirit roll, they gain the Smarts of the animal as well, believing that they are an animal until the power ends. At the end of each of the victim's subsequent turns, he can make a Spirit roll at –2 (–4 if the caster got a raise) to return to his normal form. ModifiersSee generic modifiers here Duration (+2): The power's Duration is measured in minutes instead of rounds.

Blind (Miracles)

PP: 2

Alcance: Sm Duración: Instant Rango: Novice

Blind See power here. Rank: Novice Power Points: 2 Range: Smarts Duration: Instant School: Necromancy Trappings: Bright flash of light, sand in eyes, confusion. Those affected by this malicious power suffer blurred vision or near-complete blindness with a raise. Success means the victim suffers a –2 penalty to all actions involving sight, or –4 with a raise. The victim automatically tries to shake off the effect with a Vigor roll as a free action at the end of his following turns. Success removes 2 points of penalties, and a raise removes the effect entirely. ModifiersSee generic modifiers here Area of Effect (+2/+3): For +2 points the power affects everyone in a Medium Blast Template. For +3 points the area of effect is increased to a Large Blast Template. See area effect attacks here. Strong (+1): The Vigor roll to shake off the effect is made at –2.

🎭 Bright flash of light, sand in eyes, confusion

PP: 3

Alcance: Sm Duración: 5 Rango: Novice

Deflection See power here. Rank: Novice Power Points: 2 Range: Smarts Duration: 5 School: Abjuration Trappings: Mystical shield, gust of wind, phantom servant that intercepts missiles. Deflection powers work in a variety of ways. Some manifestations actually deflect incoming attacks, others blur the target's form or produce illusionary effects. The end result is always the same, however— to misdirect incoming melee or missile attacks from the recipient of the power. With success, foes must subtract 2 from either melee or ranged attacks (caster's choice). With a raise, the penalty applies to both. An attacker who uses a ranged weapon in melee against the recipient suffers the penalty either way. ModifiersSee generic modifiers here Additional Recipients (+1): The power may affect more than one target for 1 additional Power Point each.

A success removes one Wound, and a raise removes two. The power may be cast additional times to remove additional Wounds within that hour and as long as the healer has enough Power Points.For Extras, the GM must first determine if the ally is still alive (see Aftermath). If so, a successful arcane skill roll returns the ally to action (Shaken if it matters.)ModifiersSee generic modifiers hereGreater Healing (+10): Greater healing can restore any Wound, including those more than an hour old.Crippling Injuries (+15): The power can heal a permanent Crippling Injury (see Incapacitation). This requires an hour of preparation and only one casting is permitted per injury. If it fails, this caster cannot heal that particular injury (but someone else may try). If successful, the subject is Exhausted for 24 hours.MASS HEALING (+2/+3): For +2 Power Points, healing affects all allies within a Medium Blast Template centered on the caster (or a Large Blast Template for +3). See Area Effect Attacks here.Neutralize Poison or Disease (+1): A successful healing roll negates any poison or disease. If the poison or disease has a bonus or penalty associated with it, the modifier applies to the arcane skill roll as well.

Curse (Magic)

Alcance: Touch Duración: Special Rango: Seasoned

Curse See power here. Rank: Seasoned Power Points: 5 Range: Touch Duration: Special School: Necromancy Trappings: Effigy, ritualistic words, touch. Some practitioners of the arcane arts heal their allies. Others inflict sickness upon their enemies. To use this particularly nasty spell, the caster makes an arcane skill roll Compendium[swpf-core-rules.swpf-rules.Opposed Rolls]{opposed} by the victim's Spirit roll. Failure means the victim suffers a level of Fatigue immediately and at sunset each day thereafter (further castings of curse have no additional effect). Once the accursed becomes Incapacitated, he makes a Vigor roll each day to avoid death. Breaking the Curse: The curse can be lifted by the original caster at will, and ends automatically if she's slain. Dispel also removes a curse (at –2), though each individual may only try once— if failed it's beyond her abilities. ModifiersSee generic modifiers here Turn to Stone (+5): The accursed must make a Spirit roll every round or take a level of Fatigue. When Incapacitated, the victim turns to stone (his Toughness becomes Hardness). The curse must be broken to stop the effect (see above).

Drain Power Points (Magic)

PP: 2

Alcance: Sm Duración: Instant Rango: Veteran

Drain Power Points See power here. Rank: Veteran Power Points: 2 Range: Smarts Duration: Instant School: Necromancy Trappings: Prayer, whispers, gestures. Powerful mages, priests, and other arcanists can use this ability to drain magical energy from their foes. With a raise they can even leech the stolen energy for themselves. The power is opposed by the target's Spirit, and the caster suffers a –2 penalty to her roll if the target has a different Arcane Background than her own. Success drains 1d6 of the rival's Power Points (if any, and the die doesn't Ace). With a raise, the caster adds the points to her own. This may take her above her usual maximum! They last until used, and must be the first spent when casting. Drain Power Points can also be used on an arcane device (the creator still resists with her arcane skill whether she wields it or not). The device can't lose more Power Points than it has. ModifiersSee generic modifiers here Power (+2): The caster drains 2d6 Power Points with success. Drain [[/r 1d6]] or [[/r 2d6]]

Extinguir magia

PP: 1

Alcance: Sm Duración: Instant Rango: Novice

Dispel See power here. Rank: Novice Power Points: 1 Range: Smarts Duration: Instant School: Abjuration Trappings: Waving hands, whispered words. Dispel allows a hero to negate enemy powers. It has no effect on permanent enchantments or natural abilities such as a dragon's breath or a banshee's scream. Dispel affects arcane devices normally (see Arcane Devices). Dispel can be used on a power already in effect or to counter an enemy power as it's being used. The latter requires the countering mage to be on Hold and interrupt his foe's action. In either case, dispelling an opponent's power is an opposed roll of arcane skills. A target using the Mystic Powers Edge or innate powers uses Spirit as its arcane skill. If the dispelling character wins, the targeted power ends immediately (or fails if it was countered with the usual results of failure). With a raise, the recipient of the dispelled power is also Distracted. ModifiersSee generic modifiers here Anti-Magic Field (+8): Instead of affecting a power at Range, this modifier creates a Medium Blast Template centered on the recipient with a Duration of 5. Magic items, effects, and powers have no effect within the field. Summoned creatures in the field must make a Spirit roll each round or take a Wound. Magically-created objects are unaffected. Anti-Magic Field has no effect on deities or artifacts, and can't be combined with any other modifiers. Area of Effect (+1/+2/+3): The effect covers an area: +1 Power Points uses a Small Blast Template, +2 points uses Medium, or +3 uses Large. See area effect attacks here. The caster makes one arcane skill roll and chooses which power on each target is affected. Targets oppose with arcane skill. This affects all powers in the target area unless the caster also uses the Selective Power Modifier. Disenchant (+1): The caster can target a magical item rather than an individual or a power. This is a standard arcane skill roll, not an opposed roll, at –2 penalty (–4 for artifacts, GM's call). If successful, all the item's magical abilities are negated for one round, or two with a raise. Multiple Powers (+1): If successful, the caster dispels all the target's currently activated powers. REMOVE CURSE (+2): This ignores the –2 penalty when attempting to end the curse power. Additionally, it can be used to end the effect of cursed items.

Minor Bolt Power Points: 0 Range: Smarts Duration: Instant Trappings: Acid splash, ray of frost, jolt of electricity. Minor bolt sends damaging bursts of energy, streaks of holy light, or shards of matter toward one's foes. There are no Range penalties, but the arcane skill roll is affected by Cover, Illumination, and all other usual penalties. The damage is 2d4.

Acid splash, ray of frost, jolt of electricity.

Illusion (Magic)

PP: 3

Alcance: Sm Duración: 5 Rango: Novice

Illusion See power here. Rank: Novice Power Points: 3 Range: Smarts Duration: 5 School: Illusion Trappings: Magical spells, holograms, "ethereal materializers." One of the greatest powers is the ability to create something from nothing— even if it's not real! Illusion can be used to create a visual scene or replica of most anything the caster can imagine, but it is silent, intangible, and incapable of affecting the real world. For example, illusionary weapons pass through foes, one cannot sit in an illusionary chair, and an illusionary dog has no audible bark. Those who contact an illusion or doubt it's real make a Smarts roll as a free action (at –2 if the power was activated with a raise). If successful, that individual is no longer subject to this casting. The GM should make group rolls for Extras as they point out the illusion's inconsistencies to each other. The volume of the illusion must fit within a sphere the size of a Medium Blast Template (4" or eight yards in diameter). ModifiersSee generic modifiers here Area of Effect (+1): The illusion's area of effect is increased to the size of a Large Blast Template. DEADLY ILLUSION (+3): The illusion may attack or otherwise cause harm. As a limited action, the caster may use the illusion to "attack" an individual. This is an opposed roll of the caster's arcane skill versus the target's Smarts (at –2 if the power was activated with a raise).If the caster wins, the target is Shaken (this cannot cause Incapacitation). With a raise, the target suffers a Wound (this can cause Incapacitation). The caster may attack additional foes as Multi-Actions. She may not use other combat maneuvers, such as Called Shots or Wild Attacks (though it may look that way!) Duration (+2): The Duration is measured in minutes. MOBILITY (+1/+2): For +1 Power Point, the illusion can move (and fly) at a Pace of 12, or 24 for +2 Power Points. This is a limited free action. Sound (+1): The power generates sound appropriate to the illusion. Illusionary allies may talk, illusionary crows caw, and so on. It may not mask or mute existing sound, however. Strong (+2): Smarts rolls to disbelieve the illusion are made at –2.

Light/Darkness See power here. Rank: Novice Power Points: 2 Range: Smarts Duration: 10 minutes School: Evocation Trappings: Illusionary torch, sunlight, darkness, thick fogs. Light creates bright illumination in a Large Blast Template. With a raise, the light can be focused into a 5″ (10 yard) beam as well. Darkness blocks illumination in an area the size of a Large Blast Template, making the area Dark, or Pitch Dark with a raise (see Illumination). If light and darkness overlap, they create a patch of Dim light (–2). ModifiersSee generic modifiers here Area Effect (+2): Light only. The light expands to the caster's Smarts in radius, with a Range of Smarts ×2. The light is sunlight and acts as natural sunlight. True DARKNESS (+2): The darkness blocks Infravison, Low Light Vision, and Darkvision. It has no effect on magical sight such as detect arcana. Mobile (+1): The caster can move the template at a Pace equal to his arcane skill die type as a limited free action each round. He can also attach it to an inanimate object when first cast if desired. It cannot be cast on a living being.

Telekinesis Rank: Seasoned Power Points: 5 Range: Smarts x2 Duration: 5 School: Transmutation Trappings: A wave of the hand, magic wand, steely gaze. Telekinesis is the ability to move objects or creatures (including oneself) with arcane will. It has a Strength of d10, or d12 with a raise. On activation, the caster may immediately perform one of the "uses" below. Subsequent uses are actions and use the arcane skill (but are not activation rolls and therefore not subject to Backlash from Critical Failures). Unwilling beings targeted by telekinesis resist the caster's arcane skill with an opposed Spirit roll when first targeted, and at the start of each of their turns thereafter until they're released. Successful resistance does not mean the spell fails–the caster may try again on his next turn. Uses: Bash: The target may be bashed into the floor, ceiling, or walls for Str+d6 damage. Change Targets: The caster may release a victim or tool as a free action. Picking up a new weapon is a free action. Selecting a new unwilling target is an action and is resisted as above. Manipulate: The caster may use tools or wield a weapon, using the caster's arcane skill. (This doesn't alter the caster's Parry if wielding a weapon if his arcane skill is different from his Fighting skill.) Move: The target or tool may be moved up to the caster's Smarts as a limited free action. Modifiers Power (+3): The Strength of telekinesis is d12, or d12+2 with a raise. Barrier creates a straight wall 5″ (10 yards) long and 1″ (two yards) tall, of immobile material that conforms to the surface it's cast upon. Double the length with a raise. Thickness varies depending on what the wall is made of, but is usually a few inches. The wall is Hardness 10 (or 12 with a raise), and may be destroyed as any other object (see Breaking Things). Each Wound destroys a 1" (2 yard) square section of wall (piercing weapons can't damage the barrier). When the spell expires or the wall is broken it crumbles to dust or dissipates. Trappings are never left behind. ModifiersSee generic modifiers here Damage (+0/+1): The barrier causes 2d4 damage to anyone who contacts it. If the barrier is immaterial, such as with a wall of fire, this modifier costs +0 instead of +1. Deadly (+2): The barrier causes 2d6 damage. Hardened (+1): The wall is Hardness 12 (or 14 with a raise). Shaped (+1): The barrier forms a circle, square, or rectangle. It can't have a roof or floor, and can't Bind or Entangle anything within (use the entangle power for that). Size (+1): The length and height of the barrier doubles.

Puppet See power here. Rank: Veteran Power Points: 3 Range: Smarts Duration: 5 School: Enchantment Trappings: Glowing eyes, trance-like state, a swinging pocket watch, voodoo dolls. Puppet is an opposed roll of the character's arcane skill versus the target's Spirit. With success, the victim obeys commands that don't directly harm himself or those he cares about. This includes inaction, as well, so a controlled character won't just stand idly by or leave the area if he knows his friends are in danger. With a raise, the target will harm himself or others (including by inaction), but gets a Spirit roll as a free action. If successful, he doesn't carry out that particular command but remains a puppet. With a raise, he breaks the controller's hold and the power ends. Commands are general, such as "attack that person" or "open that door." The controller doesn't get to dictate how many actions the victim uses in a turn, whether or not he uses his Sweep Edge, etc. ModifiersSee generic modifiers here Additional Recipients (+2): The caster may affect others at the cost of 2 Power Points each. Resurrection See power here. Rank: Heroic Power Points: 20 Range: Touch Duration: Instant School: Conjuration Trappings: Elaborate ceremonies, magical amulets, divine intervention Perhaps the greatest power of all is the ability to bring someone back from the dead. It can restore lost loves, bring solace to the grieving, and topple kingdoms. Returning the dead to life requires a reasonably complete corpse no more than a year old. The caster then prays, meditates, chants, or otherwise concentrates on mending the body and pulling the spirit back to it for four hours. Once done, the healer makes a casting roll at –4. If successful, the victim returns to life with three Wounds and is Exhausted. With a raise, she returns merely Exhausted. ModifiersSee generic modifiers here Greater Resurrection (+10): The boundaries of life and death no longer matter. A caster can restore the dead to life regardless of how long the target was dead and even without a corpse. To resurrect the dead in this fashion requires a twelve-hour ritual and leaves the caster Exhausted. Power (+5): The hero can raise a spirit dead up to a decade for +5 Power Points.

This power allows the caster to take the form of one of the following creature types: Animal, Elemental, Humanoid, Plant. The caster can only turn into the base form of the creature, not elite or alternative versions (So a Troll is allowed, but a Troll Brute is not). With a raise, the caster can increase the creature's Strength and Vigor by one die type each. The size of the new form is limited by the caster's Rank: What a character can change into depends on his Rank: Shape Change Cost Rank Size 3 Novice Size –4 to Size –1 5 Seasoned Size 0 8 Veteran Size 1 to 2 11 Heroic Size 3 to 4 15 Legendary Size 5 to 10 Held and worn items are assumed into the new form and reappear when the power ends. While transformed, the character retains his Edges and Hindrances, and his Smarts, Spirit, and their linked skills (though he may not be able to use some or all of them depending on the form—GM’s call). He gains the animal’s Agility, Strength, Vigor, and linked skills. His ability to use devices and communicate is limited to those of his new form. He can maintain powers and even cast new powers if the form permits (GM's call). Casting a power in the new form incurs a –2 penalty to the roll, modified by the difference in rank between the spellcaster and the rank required for his new form (see the Shape Change table). If the caster is one rank higher the penalty is –1, or 0 if two or more ranks higher. A creature's natural abilities are conferred, but innate powers and Arcane Backgrounds aren't. A caster in the form of a copper dragon could fly and use its breath weapon, but not use its spellcasting ability. Wound Effects: The caster cannot benefit from a creature's additional Wounds or Wound reduction abilities like Resilient, Very Resilient, or Unstoppable, or extra Wounds from Large or Huge Scale creatures. ModifiersSee generic modifiers here Duration (+1): The power’s Duration is measured in minutes instead of rounds.
